A message from Fiona Pimm

Kai kā ihoiho o kā mauka whakahī puta noa i tō tātau whenua taurikura Tēnā koutou, otirā tēnā tātau.

It is fantastic to have this opportunity again to gather as whānau, hapū and iwi. We are proud to be hosting all of you at Arowhenua Marae for Hui-ā-iwi 2022.

Our theme this year is Revitalisation, aptly chosen as we emerge from the disruption brought about by COVID-19. Now we can start to revitalise our connections with one another and connect with our whenua as we gather at Arowhenua and celebrate Kāi Tahutaka.

I would like to thank the Hui-ā-Iwi Komiti for their many months of hard work.

Over the two days, you will be able to discover various wānaka organised and led by whānau, where they share their art, music, and knowledge. The Komiti also made sure that there are activities for tamariki and rakatahi to enjoy and learn from.

You can learn about raraka, whakairo, or taoka pūoro, while your tamariki get an introduction to mau rākau. You can find the details on pages 11 - 14.

I also acknowledge all the volunteers including Te Rūnaka o Kāi Tahu kaimahi, and all the businesses and organisations that contributed to making Hui-ā-Iwi 2022 happen.

He rau rika e oti ai (Many hands make light work).

So, e te whānau, I encourage you to explore and wander around. Find new whanauka and reconnect with the ones you haven't seen for a while. It is a great time to be with our whānau Kāi Tahu.

Nō reira e aku huāka nō tērā pito, no tērā pito Hei ākuanei tātau hui ai

Nāku iti nei, Nā Fiona Pimm Te Rūnanga o Arowhenua Representative

E pari ana kā tai o mihi ki a koutou katoa Te kakapa manawa o tō tātau nei iwi, o Kāi Tahu Ko hori he tau anō He wā tēnei ki te whakanui, ki te whakamihi i a tātau anō Ko ara ake nei te Hui-ā-iwi 2022! Matike! Maraka!

Kia ora e te whānau!

After more than two years of Covid cancellations, this is it, e te whānau! Hui-ā-Iwi 2022 is finally here, and it will no doubt be the highlight of the year for many of us.

Te Rūnaka o Kāi Tahu is bringing a range of presentations to Hui-ā-lwi, starting with a deep dive panel discussion with Te Kura Taka Pini on the Kāi Tahu Rakatirataka over Freshwater Strategy, including where we are at with the court case.

I encourage whānau to attend a Sunday kōrero on the Kāi Tahu Fund to find out what support is available for whānau, and to hear from those it has helped.

Kāi Tahu Archive and Te Rūnaka o Arowhenua are also jointly presenting a special exhibition - Kā Whakaahua o Arowhenua, which includes photographs of whānau, whenua, mahika kai, events, and buildings of significance to the people of Arowhenua.

Our popular Open Forum is back on Sunday 27 Nov, which will be your opportunity to ask your rangatira pātai on the various mahi underway and to hold us to account.

This will be my last Hui-ā-Iwi as Kaiwhakahaere before I step down this time next year, so I'm looking forward to gathering with my whānau and surrounding myself with kōrero konohi ki te konohi once again.

Enjoy revitalising your connections with your whanauka, and I'll see you soon.

Kā manaakitaka Lisa Tumahai Kaiwhakahaere

Te Rūnanga o Arowhenua

Arowhenua is as a vibrant and active community with Te Rūnanga o Arowhenua Society Incorporated having responsibility for upholding the aspirations of Kāti Huirapa. While also maintaining strong relationships and engagement with the wider community.

Since the original shift of the Kāti Huirapa people from the traditional pā site of Waiateruatī, the community have maintained a strong presence at Arowhenua. Te Hapa o Niu Tireni is the last surviving native school in the South Island, Arowhenua Māori School - Tarahaoa, built in 1895. It also serves as a health clinic for the community - He Oranga Pai which opened in more recent years.

The executive and management team are responsive to members of the hapū and wider community, undertaking activities to meet the current and future needs of the community to ensure that future generations have a place that acknowledges the unique history of the region and upholds the cultural practices and beliefs of Kāti Huirapa.

As a largely voluntary community organisation, we administer a range of portfolios required to manage interests in a broad range of areas including social development, education, environment, culture, and economy.

We work collaboratively and in partnership with the local, regional, and national community to preserve and protect the unique history of this region and the iconic natural features within it, whilst upholding the ongoing aspirations of Kāti Huirapa.
